Dear Friends:

HOLY HOAX

The picture on the front of USA Today was just precious.

Standing around a world globe was an earnest little band of prayer warriors. With uplifted hands, they were not interceding for the desperate needs and threats to our Nation. They were praying about our planet and the awful Americans that live on it.

It reminded me, throughout history, every cause, no matter how far out, will always seek to use a few ill-advised people "of the cloth" for their purposes. Ask Hitler.

Seeing such a noble group of religious folks flailing about, I'm supposed to feel the pressure join my voice in the "We Are The World/Kumbaya" medley but truthfully, a lot of this stuff doesn't pass the smell test, much less, could it withstand just a smidgen of spiritual discernment.

Some of the good folks in the photo were on the way to the Climate Summit in Copenhagen. With knapsacks filled with trail mix, individual sheets of toilet paper and Grateful Dead bootleg cassettes; our Earth Shoe shod foot soldiers were answering the call. Too bad some of the good folks couldn't hitch a ride with the main participants of the Meeting. After all, with 1200 limos and 140 private jets in the entourage, you have to think there could be room for just a few of them.

Although I might be having some "tongue in cheek" fun, don't think I'm not tuned in to the serious underpinnings of this Silly Summit Scheme.

Much of this climate foolishness is now being exposed and it looks like much of the premeditated, deliberate suppression of documentation and gerrymandering of data is getting ready to spew all over a hoax that has been wrongly called holy.

After beating this drum for awhile now, a bloated former Vice President, whose reported hypocritical carbon footprint is 20 times more than that of the average American citizen, who, when faced with some hard facts of the cover up replied, "Yes, and there are some people who still believe that the moon landing was staged on a movie lot." You gotta think he is just a few moments away from, "I know you are but what am I?"

Behind the conscious PR and controlled media collusion is a political agenda that is insidious and dangerous. With the underlying motive to minimize, neutralize and cannibalize America, the rest of the world smiles and pats us on the back as we willfully prance down the plank to swirling socialism.

The real intent here deals with using the "cause" to help realize the dream of wealth redistribution from sea to shining sea and we have some "high up" folks authorizing the death dance.

I'm not a conspiracy guy, just a wide awake concerned guy who read the words of Cass Sunstein, the new Regulatory Czar (think Russia), who some may say is one of the most powerful bureaucrats in America. His words should ring alarm bells, "It is even possible that desirable redistribution is more likely to occur through climate change policy than otherwise, or to be accomplished more effectively through climate policy than through direct foreign aid."

That is not wealth you smell being spread.

Jesus said that you could recognize a tree by its fruit. The fruit here might look "green" on the outside but on the inside it is all "red". Chavez and Castro red.

We must not be cajoled into such pious sounding traps of absurdity.

Back to my beginning words about discernment from the supposedly more spiritual amongst us. Right now, we are way off base from Founding Intent which includes the acknowledgement and dependence on our God. That is why, in just a few hundred years we are blessed, aiding millions, watching flat screens, riding in good cars and eating Happy Meals whenever we desire. Many of the others on this globe, with 3000 years on us, ride mules, sell women and cuss us while wanting everything we have. But, it appears, they have the ears of religious "leaders" who have forgotten their natural and spiritual founding.

Chapter One in the Book lays it out...

26 Then God said, "Let us make human beings in our image, to be like us. They will reign over the fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, the livestock, all the wild animals on the earth, and the small animals that scurry along the ground." 27 So God created human beings in his own image. In the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. 28 Then God blessed them and said, "Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the earth and govern it. Reign over the fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, and all the animals that scurry along the ground." 29 Then God said, "Look! I have given you every seed-bearing plant throughout the earth and all the fruit trees for your food.30 And I have given every green plant as food for all the wild animals, the birds in the sky, and the small animals that scurry along the ground—everything that has life." And that is what happened. 31 Then God looked over all he had made, and he saw that it was very good! (Gen 1:26-31, NLT)

Bottom line, Father God gave this planet to the creation closest to His heart, not to a Summit of Socialists. He expects us to be wise and not tepid in our management. Traditional King James language says that God empowered man with dominion over everything in His creation. This God command of dominion brings responsibility but not repression.

Wake up and smell the schlock.
